INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

All questions in this paper carry equal marks. The number of marks is given in brackets [ ] at the end of each question or part question.

Cell phones are not allowed in the examination room.
Section A

In Section A you must answer both Question 1 which begins on this page and Question 2 which begins on Page 9. You must cover one play and one novel in Section A.

Choose one of the passages from (a) to (f), read it carefully and then answer as concisely as possible the questions following it.

N.B. If you write answers on more than one passage, only marks for one of them will be recorded.

1 (a) SOYINKA: Kongi’s Harvest

KONGI: I am the Spirit of Harvest.
SECRETARY: Of course my Leader, the matter is not in dispute.
KONGI: I am the SPIRIT of Harvest.
SECRETARY: Of course my Leader.
KONGI: I am the Spirit of HAAR-VEST!
SECRETARY: Of course my Leader. And a benevolent Spirit of Harvest. This year shall be known as the year of Kongi’s Harvest. Everything shall date from it.
KONGI: [stops suddenly.]: Who thought that up?
SECRETARY: It is among the surprise gifts we have planned for our beloved Leader. I shouldn’t have let it slip out ...
KONGI: [rapt in the idea.]: You mean, things like 200 K.H.
SECRETARY: A.H. my Leader. After the Harvest. In a thousand years, one thousand A.H. And last year shall be referred to as I B.H. There will only be one Harvest worth remembering.

(i) What does Kongi mean when he says, “I am the Spirit of Harvest”? [2]

(ii) Explain why the expression, “benevolent Spirit of Harvest” is ironic. [4]

(iii) State two expressions that show that the Secretary is exaggerating his respect for Kongi. [2]

(iv) Kongi and the Secretary are making reference to Christian concepts. What two Christian concepts are being referred to in the excerpt? [4]

(v) “There will be only one Harvest worth remembering.” Why will the next day’s Harvest be worth remembering? [4]

(vi) A little later in the text, Kongi uses sarcastic words to a group of people. State the sarcastic words that Kongi uses. Who are these people and how many are they? [3]

(vii) Later on, the Secretary says, “I think the little problem of Danlola is nearly solved.” What figure of speech is this? [1]
(b) SHAKESPEARE: Julius Caesar

ANTONY
Will you be patient? Will you stay a while?
I have o'ershot myself to tell you of it;
I fear I wrong the honourable men
Whose daggers have stabbed Caesar; I do fear it.

4 PLEBEIAN
They were traitors. Honourable men!

ALL
The will, the testament!

2 PLEBEIAN
They were villains, murderers! The will, read the will!

ANTONY
You will compel me then to read the will?
Then make a ring about the corpse of Caesar,
And let me show you him that made the will.
Shall I descend? And will you give me leave?

ALL
Come down.

2 PLEBEIAN
Descend.

[He comes down from the pulpit]

3 PLEBEIAN
You shall have leave.

(i) Who allows Antony to speak and why is it an error to allow him to speak?
Name the person who is against giving Antony the chance to speak to the common people after Caesar's death. [5]

(ii) State where this conversation is taking place and name any three of the honourable men Antony is referring to? [4]

(iii) Why does Anthony refer to them as 'honourable'? [2]

(iv) Briefly state the contents of the will and indicate what the common people do upon hearing them. [5]

(v) What are Caesar's last words before he dies and what do they reveal about him? [3]

(vi) What does Antony call Brutus at the end of the play? [1]

[Total: 20]
(c) IBSEN: An Enemy of the People

KATHERINE: Are you there, Thomas?
DR STOCKMANN: (off-stage): Yes, I’ve just got in.
(Enters.) What is it, dear?
KATHERINE: A letter from Peter. (Proffers it.)
DR STOCKMANN: (taking it): Let’s have a look. (Opens it and reads.) I herewith enclose the analysis, together with your report on – (Reads on in a low murmur.) H’m–!
KATHERINE: What does he say, dear?
DR STOCKMANN: (thrusting envelope and contents into jacket – pocket): Oh – he only says he’s coming in to see me about midday . . .
KATHERINE: Well – see that you don’t forget about it and go out again . . .
DR STOCKMANN: Oh, I shan’t be going out again now –
I’ve done this morning’s round.
KATHERINE: I’m just itching to know how he’ll take it . . .
DR STOCKMANN: Well – he won’t be too pleased that it’s I, and not he, who made the discovery . . .
KATHERINE: Yes, that’s just what I’m afraid of.
DR STOCKMANN: Oh, he’ll be glad enough underneath, of course; I’ve no doubt about that.
But you know how he hates it if anyone but himself should ever do anything for the town . . .
KATHERINE: Well then, why not be generous and let him share the credit with you?
Couldn’t you say it was really he who started you thinking about it in the first place – or something like that?
DR STOCKMANN: Yes, I suppose so – I don’t mind. So long as I can get things put right . . .

Hall door opens a little and MORTEN
KILL pokes his head round inquiringly, and chuckling to himself.
(i) "A letter from Peter." Who is Peter to Dr. Stockmann and what is he in society? [4]

(ii) "Well, he won't be too pleased that it's I, and not he, who made the discovery ....." What is the discovery about? [3]

(iii) Who is Morten Kill? Why has he come? [3]

(iv) What does Morten Kill promise he will do at Christmas? [3]

(v) What does Hovstad promise he will do if Dr Stockmann fails to get his way about his discovery? [2]

(vi) What reason does Peter advance for not accepting Dr. Stockmann's report? [5]

[Total: 20]
(d) OYONO: The Old Man and the Medal

‘The crook!’ he said, out loud. Then he said inwardly, ‘O God, forgive me if that was blasphemy. I don’t know what I am doing. I have lost my medal. I have lost everything .... everything. I am all alone, alone in the world.’

He continued his solitary progress through the rain. He loomed up in the glare of the lightning like a corpse raised by miracle out of the waters, a vision from the apocalypse in the midst of the warring elements.

At last Meka noticed the first huts of the location. The roofs were silhouetted against the edge of the orange sky where the lightning flickered intermittently. Meka felt a sudden flush of warmth. The St. Vitus dance that had made him tremble from head to foot suddenly left him. He decided he would go and dry his clothes at Mammy Titi’s.

(i) Name the crook that Meka is referring to here and state why he quickly regrets his statement.

(ii) Why is Meka given the medal?

(iii) What is Mammy Titi at Doum? When do we first see Meka visiting her in the text and why?

(iv) Meka is arrested soon after this excerpt. What reasons does the arresting Constable give Meka for arresting him?

(v) Once at the Charge office, what do the police officially charge Meka with and what is the rank of the officer who records the charge?

[Total: 20]
(e) AMADI: The Concubine

When the medicine man had made himself at home in his room Ekwueme and Ihuoma came to greet him.
‘Welcome, Agwoturumbe,’ Ekwueme greeted.
‘Thank you, my son. Ah, this is the beautiful girl in question, I am sure,’ he said, regarding Ihuoma appreciatively. ‘All will be well my daughter, even if I have to make a journey to the bottom of the river myself.’

The young couple exchanged glances. There was no telling what this great dibia would do and they could not help feeling excited. Here was a medicine man Anyika could not measure up to. He had not spent a night in the village yet but everyone, including the little boys, knew he was around.

(i) What do the villagers expect a man on a journey to carry which Agwoturumbe does not have when he arrives at Omokachi village and what does this indicate to them? [3]

(ii) What is the villagers’ assumption when Agwoturumbe enters Wigwe’s compound? [3]

(iii) What preparations does Wigwe make for Agwoturumbe’s visit? [5]

(iv) Mention five items needed for the sacrifice. [5]

(v) Give reasons why Ekwueme feels it is risky for him to take part in the sacrifice on the river. [4]

ABRAHAMS: A Wreath for Udomo

"I’ll visit you one day,” Lois said.
"You’ll love them,” he said.
Restraint left her here. She took his hand. They climbed the sloping land hand-in-hand. At last they were clear of the town, above it. Beads of sweat glistened on Udomo’s brow. His shirt clung damply to his body. Lois went down on a patch of grass beside the track that wound up to the mountains in the one direction, and down to the town in the other.

"Halfway house,” she said.
Udomo flopped down beside her and mopped his brow.
"Whew! It’s hot! I’m sweating like a pig! Why aren’t you?"
"I’m used to it. I grew up in it."
"But I was born in Africa!"
"Your sun is different from mine. Mine is a crisp, dry sun. Yours is a damp, sticky sun. You’re used to the one, I to the other."
He grinned and began to reach for her. But the sound of voices stopped him. Down the track came two peasants leading a line of loaded asses. They called out greetings as they passed.

(i) "I’ll visit you one day” Who is Lois and who is she referring to? [2]

(ii) Just before this excerpt, Udomo complains about the expensive breakfast she has arranged for him. What does she say in response? [3]

(iii) What signs in the passage show that the two are in love? [3]

(iv) Just before this excerpt, Udomo is reminded of home by the way he moved and talked. What does he say about the sun and the people? [4]

(v) Up at the Saracen village, Lois offers Udomo present fulfilment. What is in the package? [4]

(vi) The man who joins Lois and Udomo at the Saracen seems to approve of the fate of the invaders and he repeats a certain feeling about them. Who is he and what phrase does he keep repeating? [4]

[Total: 20]
2. Choose one of the questions from (a) to (f)

NB. If your answer in Question 1 was on a play, now select a novel, but if your answer in Question 1 was on a novel, you must now select a play.

(a) SOYINKA: Kongi's Harvest
   Either (i) With reference to the play, show how Segi resists the new order of things. Bring out clearly her importance in the play.
   Or (ii) Kongi’s Aweer describes his regime as progressive. Bring out the irony found in this description of Kongi’s government.

(b) SHAKESPEARE: Julius Caesar
   Either (i) "I am glad that my weak words have struck but thus much show of fire from Brutus."
   Give a breakdown of the points Cassius raises in trying to persuade Brutus to join the Conspirators.
   Or (ii) Outline the opposing views that Cassius and Brutus put across on whether or not Mark Antony should be killed and on whether or not he should speak at Casear’s funeral.

(c) IBSEN: An Enemy of the People
   Either (i) The play ‘An Enemy of the People’ starts with Dr. Stockmann in a happy mood and ends with him and the family in a sad mood. What accounts for this change of mood?
   Or (ii) Betrayal is one of the central themes of the play, ‘An Enemy of the People.’ By closely following the events in the play, show how the following are betrayed:
   (a) Dr Stockmann
   (b) Petra
   (c) The Common People
(d) OYONO: The Old Man and the Medal

Either (i) The whites of “The Old Man and the Medal” are not sincere in the way they relate with blacks.

Discuss the insincerity of the following characters:

(a) Father Vandermyer
(b) Gullet
(c) M. Fouconi

Or (ii) Unlike her husband, Kelara is able to see through the white man’s lies.

With reference to the text, give a detailed character analysis of Kelara and with specific evidence, show how she sees through the white man’s lies.

(e) AMADI: The Concubine

Either (i) Ekwueme finally gathers up the courage to propose marriage to Ihuoma. Relate the episode leading to this, giving Ihuoma’s reasons for turning down his proposal.

Or (ii) It can be asserted that Ekwueme is responsible for his own death. Discuss.

(f) ABRAHAMS: A Wreath for Udomo

Either (i) A man’s colour is not an automatic passport to Africa; that a land of birth and training is most important to man.

With close reference to the text, show how this is true about Lanwood.

Or (ii) The Africa Freedom Party greatly takes advantage of Mabi’s return to consolidate its hold on power.

Critically analyse how the Africa Freedom Part utilises Mabi’s return.
Section B

In this section you must answer three questions covering three books.

3 PATON: Cry, The Beloved Country

Either (i) The letter Khumalo receives from Johannesburg sets the story in motion.

Show how the letter is the centre of all the events in the story.

Or (ii) Arthur Jarvis’ manuscripts describe the attitude of the white man and his actions towards the black.

What prejudices are entertained by the whites according to the manuscripts and how do they influence the relationships between the whites and blacks in the South Africa of “Cry the Beloved Country.”

4 ORWELL: Animal Farm

Either (i) Give an account of the part played by Boxer showing clearly his importance in the development of the story in ‘Animal Farm’.

Or (ii) Give a detailed description of the Battle of the Cowshed citing relevant incidents played by Snowball.

5 ABRAHAMS: Mine Boy

Either (i) Despite being under one roof, Xuma and Daddy display completely different characteristics. Account for these differences.

Or (ii) Critically analyse the dual character of Leah by referring to what she says and how she behaves.
6  ACHtBE: Things Fall Apart

   Either (i) Cite events that have changed in Umuofia and Mbanta since the coming of the Whiteman, giving examples from the text.

   Or (ii) What are the Umuofian beliefs about ancestors? How does the coming of the Whiteman lead to the disintegration of these beliefs?

7  P'BITEK: Song of Lawino

   Either (i) With precise examples, illustrate how western political and religious ideologies have clearly confused Lawino.

   Or (ii) In chapter one Lawino clearly laments about the verbal abuse she receives from her husband. Outline these various verbal abuses that Lawino laments about.

8  SICHtZYA: Uneasy Yoke

   Either (i) Right from the onset, it is clear that Mwinji’s marriage to Matthew was bound to fail. By tracing events in the novel, show clearly why this assumption is valid.

   Or (ii) Equal rights and gender equality are not part of life in the Namwanga Society of ‘Uneasy Yoke.’ By referring to events in the novel, prove that this statement is accurate.

9  WYNDHAM: The Chrysalids

   Either (i) Describe the invasion by the Fringes people into the civilised parts like Waknuk and say how this is dealt with.

   Or (ii) Who is uncle Axel and how does he become such an important ally to David and his group?
