Question

Below is the beginning of a story. You must complete it by writing between 200 and 250 extra words.

Mercy and I were happily walking back home soon after our last lesson of the day. Since we always reached home late because it was a long way on foot, my friend encouraged me to walk as fast as she normally did. This encouragement was not welcome on this particular day because I was too tired to walk very fast after being punished at school for noise making.

Suddenly, a car approached and stopped a few metres ahead. We looked at each other.
